Treasuring God's Truth, Living out His Love

Jesus urges us to pray always and not lost heart (Luke 18:1).
So we gather today for prayer, and also to give God praise and thanksgiving. Welcome.

Dear Lord: "How sweet are your words to my taste, sweeter than honey to my mouth!" (Psalm 119:103).

Lutheran Heritage Foundation

Can you imagine teaching your young child about Jesus Christ—without having any kind of Sunday school materials, or even a basic Bible storybook? This situation is a reality for many Lutheran churches around the world, but the Lutheran Heritage Foundation is helping to change that. Next Sunday, Rev. Mark Moss, LHF mission engagement associate, will preach at our worship service. Plan to join us during Bible class when Rev. Moss shares the exciting mission work LHF is doing worldwide.

MOLC Bazaar & Bake Sale

Calling ALL Bakers, Makers, Builders, and Creative Types!

The Women of Mount Olive will be hosting their Annual Bazaar and Bake Sale on Saturday, November 5 from 9 AM to 12 Noon. Please save the date and please be working on your handcrafted items to help us raise money for local nonprofit organizations serving the Mound Westonka community and various Lutheran mission efforts. There is a sign up board in the Narthex.

The wider variety of items we have to sell, the more inviting our sale is and the more funds we raise! Whether you knit, crochet, sew, do woodcrafts, create spruce tip planters, make jewelry, bake, paint, or put together enticing gift baskets, your contributions would be greatly appreciated. Please be working on whatever creative contributions you can make for the sale as it helps the local community. Donation items may be dropped off on Friday, November 4 from 4-7 PM. Please make sure ALL items are labeled and priced!

Also, back this year (barring any pandemic restrictions that could potentially arise) will be conversation tables for enjoying fellowship with the community. Coffee, tea, and treats will be available at no charge, but there will be a vessel for accepting any freewill offerings you may wish to contribute. Invite your friends and family and enjoy time visiting and shopping. Hope to see you all there!

Please speak with Sandi Woytcke, Marianne Meyer, or Jan Preble if you have questions.

OLD TESTAMENT READING

Isaiah 4:2-6

²In that day the branch of the LORD shall be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land shall be the pride and honor of the survivors of Israel. ³And he who is left in Zion and remains in Jerusalem will be called holy, everyone who has been recorded for life in Jerusalem, ⁴when the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion and cleansed the bloodstains of Jerusalem from its midst by a spirit of judgment and by a spirit of burning. ⁵Then the LORD will create over the whole site of Mount Zion and over her assemblies a cloud by day, and smoke and the shining of a flaming fire by night; for over all the glory there will be a canopy. ⁶There will be a booth for shade by day from the heat, and for a refuge and a shelter from the storm and rain.

EPISTLE Hebrews 13:1-6

¹Let brotherly love continue. ²Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for thereby some have entertained angels unawares.

³Remember those who are in prison, as though in prison with them, and those who are mistreated, since you also are in the body. ⁴Let marriage be held in honor among all, and let the marriage bed be undefiled, for God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterous. ⁵Keep your life free from love of money, and be content with what you have, for he has said, "I will never leave you nor forsake you." ⁶So we can confidently say "The Lord is my helper; I will not fear; what can man do to me?"

HOLY GOSPEL John 10:7-18

⁷So Jesus again said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep. ⁸All who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them. ⁹I am the door. If anyone enters by me, he will be saved and will go in and out and find pasture. ¹⁰The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly. ¹¹I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. ¹²He who is a hired hand and not a shepherd, who does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and flees, and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. ¹³He flees because he is a hired hand and cares nothing for the sheep. ¹⁴I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, ¹⁵just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep. ¹⁶And I have other sheep that are not of this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd. ¹⁷For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life that I may take it up again. ¹⁸No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it up again. This charge I have received from my Father."
